

Check out our scholarships today

The University has a wide range of scholarships, so chances are there's one for you. Not only do scholarships provide financial assistance but they often include valuable work experience, mentoring opportunities and even overseas travel.

Examples include:

- the Bob Mierisch Memorial Grant for engineering students valued at $4000
- the Paul Anderson Law Grant valued at $4000 and
- the $10,000 Ian Cox Memorial Social Work Honours Scholarship supporting Honours students from the Bachelor of Social Work.

These scholarships, plus many more, might just provide the helping hand you need to make university life a little easier.

Get paid to go to Uni - see if you're eligible today. Visit: unisa.edu.au/scholarships

Clint Bellenger (at left) received the Ian Gould Experimental Science Grant.

University of
South Australia

University of
South Australia

2014 Scholarships and Grants

Commonwealth Scholarships

There are also lots of Commonwealth scholarships on offer, and here are just a couple:

Indigenous Commonwealth Accommodation Scholarships
Value: $4939 per annum

Indigenous Commonwealth Education Costs Scholarships
Value: $2469 per annum

Check out unisa.edu.au/scholarships/commonwealth for more details and how to apply.

Funded Grants

The University also funds a number of other grants to help lessen the cost of study:

UniSA Placement Grants Value: $2500 one-off payment

UniSA Study and Priority Grants Value: $2000 per annum

UniSA Study Support Grants Value: $500
(2 x $250 vouchers for UniBooks)

Visit unisa.edu.au/scholarship/study_priority_grants/default.asp for more.

Further Information

unisa.edu.au/scholarships
Telephone: (08) 8302 2376
Facsimile: (08) 8302 0977
Email: study@unisa.edu.au

For information specific to international students please visit unisa.edu.au/international

The University of South Australia reserves the right to alter, amend or delete any program, fee, course, admission requirement, mode of delivery or other arrangement without prior notice. Scholarships and grants are subject to change and are awarded based on conditions current at the time of award.

Information correct at time of printing (July 2013).
CRICOS provider number 00121B

Aimee Wohling, recipient of the Sheila Bailey Midwifery Prize.

Each year more than 2500 University of South Australia students benefit from scholarships and grants worth millions of dollars.

The scholarships featured here are just a taste of the opportunities available – please visit unisa.edu.au/scholarships for the full list. Don't forget to keep checking back, as new scholarships are added regularly.

Indigenous students

Gavin Wanganeen Indigenous Scholarship

Value: $5000 per year up to $20,000

Eligibility: Indigenous students enrolled full-time in an undergraduate degree program. Must demonstrate financial need, community activity and academic success.

Irene and David Davy Scholarship for Advancement of Aboriginal Education

Value: $5000

Eligibility: Indigenous students undertaking final or Honours year of study. Awarded on the basis of academic merit and community service.

Students in financial need

Ian D. McLachlan Memorial Grant

Value: $5000

Eligibility: Final year, full-time students from the Bachelor of Commerce or associated double-degree programs. Applicants must demonstrate financial disadvantage, academic merit and attend an interview.

Cowan Ability Grants

Value: $1000

Eligibility: Recent school leavers with a disability who have completed high school within two years of commencing their current university program and who have successfully completed a year of study (equivalent to 36 units).

David Pank Northern Areas High Achiever Scholarship

Value: $2000 per year up to $8000

Eligibility: Financially disadvantaged, high achieving students from northern area high schools enrolled full-time in an undergraduate degree with a minimum ATAR score of 80.

Rural students

University of South Australia Rural Reconnect Relocation Scholarships

Value: $6000

Eligibility: Students from rural and isolated areas, to cover the relocation costs of moving to the city to pursue full-time study. Recipients selected on the basis of financial disadvantage, academic merit, a personal written statement and a character reference.

Royal Agricultural and Horticultural Education Foundation of SA Inc. Student Placement Grants

Value: $2000

Eligibility: Students who are enrolled full-time in an undergraduate or postgraduate degree and who are undertaking a placement in a rural or remote area of South Australia as part of their program to gain professional experience. Applicants must demonstrate academic merit and financial disadvantage.

Check out real life stories from scholarship recipients at unisa.edu.au/one/scholarships

High achieving students

SA Water Scholarships and Grants

Value: up to $20,000

Eligibility: SA Water supports a range of scholarships and grants to assist students with the costs of undertaking tertiary study. Students demonstrating outstanding academic merit may be eligible to apply.

Codan Engineering Excellence Scholarship

Value: up to $10,000

Eligibility: High-achieving final year students from a range of programs within the School of Engineering.

Helpful tips to get you started

There are lots of scholarship opportunities available and you may be eligible for more than you think.

1. Each scholarship is unique, that's why it's worth finding out exactly what's on offer and what you might be eligible for. Start by researching your options at unisa.edu.au/scholarships. Check the icons next to each scholarship entry on the website; they make it easy to identify your eligibility.
2. Read the online scholarship description carefully to find out more details, like selection criteria and application dates.
3. Ready to apply? It is easy to apply online through the website. Visit unisa.edu.au/scholarships

Michael Tarin, the Ian D. McLachlan Memorial Scholarship and Cowan Young Endeavour Grant recipient.

Michael Tarin

Michael is completing a double degree in Commerce and Applied Finance and hopes to secure employment at a Chartered Accounting firm next year.

Michael was awarded the Ian D. McLachlan Memorial Scholarship which provides the recipient with $5000 a year for the duration of their studies. 'The Scholarship is a huge help with my study and living expenses.' Says Michael. 'Without the scholarship my success would be limited. I remain forever thankful to the donors.'

Lightning can strike in the same place twice;

Michael received the Cowan Young Endeavour Grant at the University of South Australia Scholarship and Grants Ceremony in 2013. The grant provides the recipient with a berth aboard the Young Endeavour, Australia's national sail training ship, and all associated travel expenses. The voyage involves 11 days at sea, living and sailing with 23 other youth crew from all over Australia. The Young Endeavour is operated by the Royal Australian Navy and provides a unique professional development opportunity to develop communication, leadership and team work skills.

Read more about how to apply, visit unisa.edu.au/scholarships