

PODIATRY PROGRAM

CLINICAL PRACTICE STUDENT UNIFORM POLICY

The following attire must be worn during clinical:

It's the student's responsibility to know what shirt they are required to wear when attending placement

Scrubs to be ordered from 2025 onwards and removing clinical shirts (details pending)

Students are advised that the podiatry scrubs (top and pants) are to be worn in clinical placements where engagement in sharp procedures is expected (e.g., 2nd year and 3rd year internal clinics).

The polo shirt and blue or black dress trousers (no jeans, knitted material or corduroys allowed) are to be worn for observational placements and clinical practice where engagement in sharp procedures is not expected (e.g., during paediatrics and MSK clinics, and during 2nd year observational placement).

- Navy blue or black dress trousers (no jeans, knitted material or corduroys allowed).
- Acceptable jewellery includes plain stud earrings, plain band ring, discreet neck chain that does not exceed below the clavicle in terms of length, and medic-alert bracelet. All other jewellery is not permitted.
- Hair/ Head Scarfs must be off the face and no hair/scarf (tied up or loose) can exceed below the clavicle in terms of length.
- Beards – neatly trimmed and cannot exceed below the clavicle in terms of length.
