Adelaide University
a new university for South Australia

We're planning for an exciting new future.

The new Adelaide University, which is targeted to open in January 2026, will combine the strengths of the University of South Australia (UniSA) and the University of Adelaide to offer contemporary curriculum aligned to industry and enterprise, provide more flexible and accessible ways to study, and aim to deliver the best in research, student experience and graduate outcomes.

There are no changes for 2025 entry. If you start your studies with UniSA or the University of Adelaide, you'll be highly supported in your transition to the new institution in either your existing or an equivalent program. Graduates from 2026 onwards will receive their award from the new Adelaide University.

A new 'Adelaide University' is subject to legal and regulatory approvals.

OBJECT TO WHAT'S EXPECTED

Study at a university recognised on a global scale for its education in law. Graduate with professional honours and the advanced knowledge and skills that will make you unstoppable. Learn the art of reasoning, analysis, negotiation, advocacy, professional reporting and communication. Go beyond the theory of law and take advantage of practical learning opportunities in our moot court and public-facing Legal Advice Clinic.

DID YOU KNOW?

UniSA law degrees are accredited by the Legal Practitioners Education and Admission Council.

Philippa Jones, UniSA Law Double Degree Graduate / Lawyer, Aboriginal Legal Rights Movement.

LAW WITH A DIFFERENCE

Practical learning is so important, that's why we build valuable hands-on experience into your law degree so you graduate confident and career ready. Get involved in advocacy training in our on-campus moot court or provide advice through our student-run Legal Advice Clinic under the supervision of a qualified legal practitioner. Our teachers are also researchers, who partner with leading organisations worldwide to create real solutions that shape business, industry and policy. We're always contributing to new knowledge and global understanding, and then share these insights with you in the classroom.

GET THE LEGAL EDGE

Graduate with honours and choose to fast-track your career by completing the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) in your final year – a compulsory qualification needed to practise as a barrister or solicitor in South Australia.

Through a UniSA law degree, you'll participate in a community justice project, and gain industry experience through our Legal Advice Clinic or a professional placement.

We also offer a wide range of specialist electives, so you can expand your knowledge in an area of interest like human rights law, family law, sports law, cybercrime, and more.

DOUBLE YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Expand your expertise and career opportunities by studying a double degree combining law with a second discipline. You can pair your law degree with popular areas like business, accounting, arts, journalism or psychology; or consider your very own combination. You can apply directly on entry or combine qualifications during your studies, giving you the ultimate choice.

GRADUATE WITH YOUR GDLP

Study a UniSA law degree or double degree and have the opportunity to complete your Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) in your final year of study – see page 13 for information.

Ella Cameron, UniSA Law and Psychology Graduate / Solicitor, Resolve Divorce.

WHAT'S INDUSTRY SAYING?

"Technology has streamlined many aspects of the legal industry; traditional career paths and law firm structures are certainly more dynamic than they once were. It's important to build transferable skills – that is, a willingness to work hard, the ability to lead by example, as well as a desire to learn and give everything a go. My advice is to remain true to your professional core values and skills, but don't be afraid to embrace change."

Olaf Borutz | Vice President, Commercial Sales | Dentsu Sports International

YOUR UniSA LAW EXPERIENCE

Our flexible study options are designed so you can study the way you want to. You can benefit from full-time or part-time learning, two study intakes, Summer and Winter School intensives and networking opportunities, as well as accelerated learning pathways. You can also join our active student community through the UniSA Law Students Association (USALSA) – an independent student body that coordinates social events and networking opportunities, careers fairs and seminars, and legal advocacy competitions to give you practical experience and skills development.

MAKE INDUSTRY CONNECTIONS

Meet industry experts, develop your professional networks and immediately apply your learning to real-world environments during your studies. No matter which law degree you choose, you can undertake an internship or community justice project. We also partner with more than 60 organisations for semester exchanges, study tours and internships across Asia, Europe and the Americas. Gain practical experience by working on current legal challenges and develop the skills you need for a global career.

ABORIGINAL PERSPECTIVES AND LAW

Enrich your law studies through building your understanding of Aboriginal perspectives. Study the Bachelor of Law/ Bachelor of Arts double degree and major in Aboriginal Studies or undertake a community justice project, depending on your chosen degree. Aboriginal law students will be supported through the Aboriginal Law Student Mentoring Program which provides opportunities such as mentorship and networking with the South Australian legal profession.

ALREADY HAVE A DEGREE, BUT WANT TO STUDY LAW?

Study our Bachelor of Laws (Honours) (Graduate Entry) and get credit from your previous university studies. If you have successfully completed a recognised bachelor's degree in any discipline, you can study law at UniSA and finish in 3.5 years full-time (or part-time equivalent). See page 29.

Rhys Peden, UniSA Law Student.

FIGHTING CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY

A passion for human rights inspired a UniSA law graduate to travel abroad and support international communities in need.

During his studies, Lachlan Merrigan (pictured) received a UniSA scholarship to intern with the United Nations Assistance to the Khmer Rouge Trials (UNAKRT) at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC).

These courts were established to bring senior leaders from Democratic Kampuchea to trial, who are alleged to have committed Crimes Against Humanity in the 1970s. Lachlan supported senior lawyers and international experts in the Office of Co-Prosecution to prepare for one of the trials.

"I worked with a team from around the world to analyse facts, conduct legal research and write a submission for the Office's trial brief.

"I really enjoyed the opportunity to develop a global perspective of the legal profession and interpret the law differently – the experience encouraged me to step outside my comfort zone."

Your UniSA law degree can take you anywhere and create real impact – the possibilities are endless.

MEET YOUR TEACHER

"Employers often tell us that UniSA law graduates show strength in taking initiative with a 'can do' attitude and are prepared for the challenges of the legal profession. Our industry connections allow students to hear from experts about how the law is applied, which adds an invaluable element to their learning. As a former lawyer and now teacher and researcher, I want to prepare students for their future careers as legal professionals, and we have so many fantastic members of the legal community who are pleased to share their time and expertise."

Dr Michelle Fernando | Senior Lecturer in Law

Graduate with a law degree, including professional honours and the option to complete your Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) in just four years of study, fast-tracking your legal career. Develop an advanced understanding of key legal principles, processes and methods; and build strong skills in analysis, reasoning, advocacy, negotiation and communication to solve complex legal problems. You'll study fundamental courses and concepts that underpin the Australian legal system across areas such as torts, contracts, criminal law and constitutional law. Tailor your studies through a wide range of electives across health law, sports law, family law and human rights law. Experience practical learning in a moot court and learn what it's like to present before a judge. Engage in a community justice project in your first year. Later in your degree you can participate in our student-run Legal Advice Clinic, working with clients under the supervision of a qualified legal practitioner, or you can undertake an industry placement. There are also opportunities to go on an overseas study experience. In the final year, you can choose to complete your GDLP – a compulsory qualification needed to practise as a barrister or solicitor in South Australia. Attend classes on campus with the option to study some courses online. You'll also graduate with a degree accredited by the Legal Practitioners Education and Admission Council. Explore your double degree options below or see how you can pair this with a wide range of other UniSA degrees – criteria apply.

The Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) is delivered by arrangement with the College of Law during your final year. Following completion of the GDLP, you can claim 4 course credits towards your law degree, shortening your pathway to practice.

This degree covers the academic requirements for admission to practise law (the Uniform Admissions Rules) as specified by the National Law Admissions Consultative Committee

Students may enter the Bachelor of Business (Legal Studies) (DBLS) and apply for transfer into the Bachelor of Laws (Honours) program with credit, subject to meeting academic criteria.

Graduate with a law double degree, including professional honours and the option to complete your Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) in just five years of study, fast-tracking your legal career. Develop strong skills in analysis, reasoning, advocacy, negotiation and communication to resolve complex legal problems. Study core courses and concepts that underpin the Australian legal system across areas such as torts, contracts, criminal law and constitutional law. You'll also explore the fundamental principles of journalism, along with technical writing, editing, scriptwriting, and producing strategic communication materials. You'll develop the production skills required for news and online media, including filming and editing. Contribute to our online student publication On the Record, our award-winning Verse Magazine, national student publication The Junction, or our internet radio station UniCast. Experience practical learning in a moot court and learn what it's like to present before a judge. Engage in a community justice project in your first year. Later in your degree you can participate in our student-run Legal Advice Clinic, working with clients under the supervision of a qualified legal practitioner, or you can undertake an industry placement. There are also opportunities to go on an overseas study experience. In the final year, you can choose to complete your GDLP – a compulsory qualification needed to practise as a barrister or solicitor in South Australia. Attend classes on campus with the option to study some courses online. You'll also graduate with a degree accredited by the Legal Practitioners Education and Admission Council.

The Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) is delivered by arrangement with the College of Law during your final year. Following completion of the GDLP, you can claim 4 course credits towards your law degree, shortening your pathway to practice.

This double degree covers the academic requirements for admission to practise law (the Uniform Admissions Rules) as specified by the National Law Admissions Consultative Committee.

HOW TO PREFERENCE

If you're interested in one of our popular law double degrees, there's a few ways you can apply. The first option is to apply directly using the SATAC code listed above. You can also give yourself a back-up option by listing the Bachelor of Journalism and Professional Writing as your second preference. If you're offered a place in the journalism degree, you'll be eligible to transfer into the double degree if you successfully complete at least four courses (subjects) with the required Grade Point Average (GPA).

Later in your degree you can participate in our student-run Legal Advice Clinic, working with clients under the supervision of a qualified legal practitioner, or you can undertake an industry placement. There are also opportunities to go on an overseas study experience. In the final year, you can choose to complete your GDLP – a compulsory qualification needed to practise as a barrister or solicitor in South Australia. Attend classes on campus with the option to study some courses online. You'll also graduate with a degree accredited by the Legal Practitioners Education and Admission Council.

The Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (GDLP) is delivered by arrangement with the College of Law during your final year. Following completion of the GDLP, you can claim 4 course credits towards your law degree, shortening your pathway to practice.

This double degree covers the academic requirements for admission to practise law (the Uniform Admissions Rules) as specified by the National Law Admissions Consultative Committee.

HOW TO PREFERENCE

If you're interested in one of our popular law double degrees, there's a few ways you can apply. The first option is to apply directly using the SATAC code listed above. You can also give yourself a back-up option by listing the Bachelor of Business (Sport and Recreation Management) as your second preference. If you're offered a place in the sport and recreation degree, you'll be eligible to transfer into the double degree if you successfully complete at least four courses (subjects) with the required Grade Point Average (GPA).

unisa.edu.au/researchdegrees

Our research degrees are designed to make a difference. You'll be at the forefront of solving real-world problems, by studying a project-based research degree where you'll partner with end-users to develop solutions for the challenges of today and tomorrow.

Join an academic community recognised for first-class research in law. Create new knowledge with impact, solve real-world problems, generate enterprising and innovative solutions, and help organisations thrive. Develop the skills to independently design and execute original research and learn under the guidance of highly experienced supervisors, visiting scholars and researchers. Partner with industry, government, communities and education providers to influence decision making and challenge current thinking. Benefit from links to other research institutions across Asia, North America, Europe and the UK, and be inspired by more than 200 external partners who support our research.

Entry requirements

A research degree is suitable for someone who has completed a previous degree, normally with a research component. At UniSA, all research degree applications are made to a specific project as listed on our research projects page. Most projects will have additional, project-specific selection criteria. It is also possible to develop your own research project by negotiation. Please contact the Graduate Research Admissions team if you have any questions.

HOW TO UNLOCK YOUR UNSTOPPABLE CAREER

GET THE COMPETITIVE EDGE

In the next five years, more than 90% of new jobs will need post-secondary qualifications like a university degree.

Latest federal government reporting shows that there'll be jobs growth across a wide range of industries and job types, but the most growth will be careers that demand higher skill levels. Professional roles alone are on the rise, with projected growth sitting at 14.7% between 2021 and 2026.

This means furthering your education has never been more important. Developing soft skills in communication, computing, cognitive ability and care will also be essential ingredients to your future success.

It's in our DNA to produce unstoppable graduates, and with more than 200 world-class degrees to choose from, we'll help you become a force of the future in Australia's workforce and beyond.

Information Source: 2021–2026 Australian Government National Skills Commission, Employment Outlook

PREFERENCE BY PASSION

We know that choosing your preferences can be confusing, but we're here to help. Applications to study at UniSA are made through SATAC and you can select up to six preferences (degrees).

SATAC make offers by working down your preference list, so it's important to preference in order of what you want to study most. Don't forget, SATAC will also look at your eligibility criteria (for example, does the degree have any prerequisites?).

There are also some other things to consider when narrowing down your six choices:

1. By preferencing UniSA first, you might also be eligible for guaranteed entry. All you need to do is meet the guaranteed Selection Rank, Year 12 subject grades or TAFE/VET qualification (and any other academic criteria).

2. Do you need a back-up option? Alternative pathways offered through UniSA College can be included as part of your preference list.

That's the hard work done!

You'll automatically receive an offer from SATAC for the first preference you're eligible for in the list. It's also good to remember that there are multiple offer rounds so don't worry if you miss out on your top pick first go.

Don't just settle, follow your passion – we'll help get you into your preferred degree and you'll be on your way to that unstoppable career.

STUDY AT UniSA – THE BASICS

APPLYING WITH YEAR 12 RESULTS

- Applicants are required to have successfully completed the South Australian Certificate of Education (SACE) with:
- A competitive Selection Rank (ATAR inclusive of adjustment factors);
  - Fulfilment of the degree's prerequisite requirements (where applicable).
- Applicants may also be eligible to compete for entry if they have completed the degree's prerequisite requirements and one of the following:
- An interstate or overseas qualification considered by the University as equivalent to SACE; or
  - The International Baccalaureate Diploma with a minimum score of 24 points.
- unisa.edu.au/Year-12
- ## ADJUSTMENT FACTORS
- Australian high school students applying for university study may be eligible for adjustment factors. These are based on set equity factors and/or subject choices (see below). SATAC will combine them with your ATAR to improve your Selection Rank for entry.
- The Universities Equity Scheme – provides additional points for students coming from specified schools, as well as individuals experiencing socio-economic disadvantage.
  - The Universities Language, Literacy and Mathematics Adjustment Scheme – provides additional points for students who successfully complete a language other than English, or specified English and Mathematics subjects.
- unisa.edu.au/adjustmentfactors

GUARANTEED ENTRY

There are a few ways to guarantee your place at UniSA:

Year 12 Grades Guaranteed Entry – UniSA offers guaranteed entry based on your three best Year 12 subject grades for most degrees. If you achieve the selection grades and you put us as your first preference, that's it, you're automatically in.

Subjects need to be 20-credit Stage 2 Tertiary Admission Subjects (TAS). Students also need to achieve a minimum ATAR of 50.

Selection Rank Guaranteed Entry – UniSA has set guaranteed entry scores for most of our degrees. This means, that if you achieve that set Selection Rank and you put us as your first preference, you're in. There's nothing more you have to do.

Some degrees also have prerequisites and other eligibility criteria for entry that you'll still have to meet. Application timelines and fees also apply.

TAFE/VET Guaranteed Entry – UniSA offers guaranteed entry based on successfully completed VET qualifications. If your completed VET award meets the set VET Guaranteed Entry, you have met any prerequisites and specific entry requirements, and you have listed the degree as your first preference, you're guaranteed an offer.

Try UniSA's Guaranteed Entry Calculators

ALTERNATIVE PATHWAYS

Entering your chosen degree straight from high school is not the only pathway into UniSA. Applicants may also meet the minimum requirements to apply for entry (via competitive selection) through one of the following:

UniSA College – there are a variety of pathway options offered through UniSA College, including Diplomas, Undergraduate Certificates in University Studies, Foundation Studies, and the Aboriginal Pathway Program. You'll be enrolled as a UniSA student and build the academic skills needed for university study, along with introductory knowledge for your preferred UniSA degree.

Find out more about the full range of UniSA College programs at:

unisa.edu.au/college

UniStart – Study a tailored and supportive, fee-free university pathway program designed to prepare you to succeed in university study. In just six months full-time study you will build fundamental academic skills, gaining the confidence and competitive results to transition into a degree to pursue your goals. UniStart is offered 100% online, commencing in 2025.

unisaonline.edu.au/unistart

STAT – a competitive Skills for Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT) score, based on 70 multiple choice questions designed to assess your aptitude for tertiary study. A personal competencies statement or relevant employment experience alongside your STAT score may also be considered for some degrees.

TAFE/VET – many UniSA degrees will accept applicants who hold an AQF Certificate IV or higher from TAFE or another Registered Training Organisation. UniSA Diplomas accept Certificate III and higher.

SAIBT – there are a range of bridging qualifications offered through the South Australian Institute of Business & Technology.

Tertiary transfer – completion of at least half a year of full-time equivalent study towards an undergraduate degree at a recognised higher education institution. You can apply using your competitive Grade Point Average (GPA).

Some postgraduate programs are Commonwealth-supported, while others are full fee-paying. These details are listed under each program in this guide. For programs under one year full-time study, fees are listed as the whole program. For programs over one year of full-time study, fees are listed based on the cost per annum.

This table should be used as a guide only (indicative 2024 only). Total costs can vary depending on the courses you study and the band they fall into. For more information about fees, including eligibility for Commonwealth-supported places and deferring your student contributions through HECS-HELP or FEE-HELP loans, visit unisa.edu.au/fees

^ Band determined by program/plan.
